

The City of Los Angeles Tenant Anti-Harassment Ordinance

Stronger protections effective December 29, 2024

Tenant Harassment occurs when a landlord creates a living situation so unbearable that the tenant no longer feels safe or secure remaining in the unit.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

The Tenant Anti-Harassment Ordinance (TAHO) protects all residential tenants in the City of Los Angeles. For more information, please visit: housing.lacity.gov/residents/tenant-anti-harassment

REPORT HOUSING MATTERS TO LAHD

Tenants who believe they are being harassed by their landlord should contact the Los Angeles Housing Department (LAHD):

- Hotline: 1-866-557-7368
- Submit a question at housing.lacity.gov/ask-housing
- Submit a complaint online at housing.lacity.gov

WORKSHOPS AND LEGAL ASSISTANCE

For additional information or legal assistance, please visit: stayhousedla.org

Housing Dept
housing.lacity.gov
1-866-557-7368

Legal Assistance
stayhousedla.org
1-888-694-0040